

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 25, 1864.

Sun rises to-morrow at 6:04; and sets at 5:00. High water 5:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair, slightly cooler Wednesday morning with light frosts in the interior; north-west winds becoming variable.

FIGHT ON KING STREET.—A store-keeper while walking on King street last night with some ladies took exception to a remark made by a man which he construed as referring to the ladies he was escorting. He left his charge and caught hold of the man, but the ladies becoming alarmed, their escort concluded to let the matter drop and proceeded with his company. The party who had been assailed, however, was not disposed to allow the trouble to end in that manner, and told his assailant he would see him later. This morning he proceeded to the store-keeper's place of business with blood in his eye and the merchant avers, started to assault him. The latter, however, was too quick for him, and grasping a walking stick dealt his adversary a blow on the head which sent him doubling down his shirt bosom. By-standers stopped the fight and both men double-quick to the station house each bent on swearing out a warrant against the other. The merchant got there first and made his statement, and while doing so the assailed man put in his appearance. He became very disorderly and pounded the desk with his fist. He was told by Mayor Strauss to keep order or he would have him locked up. "No you won't," replied the exasperated individual. "But I will," retorted his honor, and calling to Officer Bettis he directed him to take the belligerent in charge. He undertook to defy the officer, but the latter soon had him behind the bars. Upon hearing the case the Mayor dismissed the charge of disorderly conduct concerning the trouble in the street, but fined him $5 for his unseemly behavior in the Mayor's office and made him give security to keep the peace.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Wilson Thornton, colored, arrested by Officer Beach for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.50.

John Howard, colored, arrested by Officer Ferguson for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5.

William Turner, colored, arrested by Officers Griffin and Howson for defacing property of a colored man named John Bryant, was fined $2.

Joseph Williams, colored, arrested by Officer McCuen charged with larceny, was held for further examination.

Walter Pargory and Rufus Cheshire, charged with assaulting James Clift, were dismissed.

G. W. Carter, colored, charged with assaulting a colored man named Dudley, forfeited $2.50 collateral.

A man, arrested by Officer Bettis for disorderly conduct in the Mayor's office, was fined $5.

The same man, charged with disorderly conduct in the street, was dismissed, but made to give security for his future behavior.

Seven colored men were arrested yesterday for disorderly conduct and were tried last night. One was fined $5 and the others $2.50 each.

James Clift, for refusing to work on the chain gang, was put on a bread-and-water diet.

Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and cool. Three prisoners and one lodger were at the station house.

MR. VANCE DECLINES A CALL.—Rev. James I. Vance, formerly of this city, but now of the First Presbyterian church of Norfolk, has declined the call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church in Nashville, Tenn. The Norfolk Ledger says:

"It was with great pleasure that the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church heard from their pastor, Rev. James I. Vance, yesterday morning, the announcement that he had decided to decline the call to the First Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tenn., and remain in Norfolk. He expressed much gratification at the unanimity of the request for his continuance here. It is said that while he had the matter under consideration he received a very large number of letters from Nashville urging him to accept the call to that city. His salary here is $2,750, besides a manse. The news that he has concluded to stay here will be welcomed by the community."

It is understood that his church will make arrangements to increase the salary now paid him.

HUNTING'S CIRCUS, museum and menagerie arrived here last night. An exhibition was given this afternoon and another will be given to-night. The tents are pitched on the old fair grounds at the head of King street. The street cars run directly to the grounds and they will prove a great convenience to people living down town who desire to attend to night's performance. The circus company upon their arrival this morning gave a very creditable street parade which brought out large crowds of spectators. It is a southern institution and is one of the best on the road. It will doubtless be well patronized in Alexandria. The circus will winter in Norfolk.

The performance this evening was largely attended and all present were pleased. The riding was good and everyone said the "show" was above the average.

Twisted the Lion's Tail.—While the circus parade was passing through one of the streets of the city this morning a mischievous urchin conceived the happy idea of walking up to the cage containing a lion and twisting the caudal appendage of Leo. The animal manifested his disapprobation of the familiarity by getting into a rage and demolishing nearly everything in the cage. The keeper, who was locked in with the beast, had a thrilling and dangerous experience in quieting the maddened animal. Dan Rice, it will be remembered, always said Alexandria in his day furnished more juvenile practical jokes than any place he ever visited, and were he on the road now he would realize that the present generation are in no wise behind their antecedents.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—The will of the late Ferdinand Knight was admitted to probate, and his widow, Mrs. Annie E. Knight, qualified as executrix. The deceased left his property to his widow.

Virginia K. Daingerfield qualified as administratrix of the estate of Henry Daingerfield, deceased, and also guardian of her five children.

Hooe's administrator vs. Hooe; report of commissioner confirmed and deed ordered.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. C. E. Woodson, who has been spending a part of the summer with relatives near this city, left last night for her home in Franklin.

Mr. Meade Minnigerode is on his way from Europe to this city, having been called home by the illness of his father, R. v. Dr. Minnigerode, whose condition continues critical.

Mrs. T. J. Davis and children and Miss Bettie Sampson have gone to Richmond on a visit to their brother.

The violinist, Miss M. M. Buckner, of New Orleans, arrived in this city this morning to join her sister who has spent the summer here with Mrs. Minnigerode. A parlor concert will be given on Oct. 2nd at No. 317 north Washington street to introduce these accomplished young musicians to an Alexandria audience. The Misses Buckner sing with equal ease in several languages. The programme for this occasion is made out in favorite English songs. Miss Buckner's beautiful voice, and her sister's violin playing promise a musical treat to their hearers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hawkins celebrated their silver wedding last evening at their home on King street. They received many handsome presents.

Mr. J. T. Burke and family, who have been spending the summer on Seminary Hill, have returned to their home in this city.

Mr. John Donnelly has returned from a trip to Nova Scotia.

RUN DOWN.—A rowboat containing four men who were fishing, was run into yesterday evening about five o'clock, just off the Arsenal point, by two coal barges belonging to the Consolidated Coal Company, towed by the tug Gilmore Meredith. James Mc L. Rogers, a colored man, forty-six years old, one of the occupants of the rowboat, was drowned. The others, Conrad Schwab and his son, and George Rogers, a son of the drowned man, all of Washington, were picked up by the crew of the tug. The men paid no attention to the approaching tug and sat in the boat, which was anchored in the channel, till struck by the barge.

U. S. COURT.—Judge R. W. Hughes presiding.—An order was issued confirming the commissioner's report in the case of the tug Eva Belle Cain and for distribution of funds.

Silas Denty vs. tug Martin Dallman, in admiralty; answer of respondents in the libel case filed.

E. B. Taylor, of this city, and B. F. Leighton, of Washington, were admitted to practice in this court.

The cases of Deavers vs. R. & D. R. R. and of Kelly vs. R. & D. R. R. were continued till November 20th to which date court adjourned. The petit jury was also adjourned until that date.

COUNTY COURT.—Before Judge Chichester adjourned the September term of the County Court yesterday evening the following business was transacted:

W. R. Johnston was appointed guardian of John Donnelly.

J. E. Burch resigned as Deputy Sergeant and was appointed a special constable for Washington district.

J. B. Spicer was appointed a special officer for Arlington district.

G. W. Stevens vs. J. W. Kirk; attachment; attachment abated.

Capias were issued for Charles Wolf and Tel Donaldson and a summons for Henry Canoler.

THE COLORED BALL which last night terminated the Emancipation Day festivities passed off without the occurrence of any serious difficulty. The police picked up two drunken and disorderly men near the hall, one of whom had stones in his pocket, and they were fined this morning. It was also said one of the attendants was very desirous of cutting some one before the ball was over. The police endeavored to find the man, but he vanished before the officers entered the hall.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge James Keith presiding.—Lida A. Maston vs. Mary J. Spillman; contest of a will; jury and verdict declaring the will to be the valid will of Mrs. Spillman.

W. C. Hinken and wife obtained leave of the court to adopt a child of the late Wallace J. Taylor.

Knight of the Maccabees. The State Commander, written from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail." Signed F. W. Stevens, State Com. Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.

"Yield Not to Misfortune." I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn. During the month of October I neither taste or smell could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus Geo. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year, A little warm for whisky straight And rather cool for beer.

Mr. John Cost, who for many years was driver for Messrs. Smoot & Co., died yesterday.

Mrs. Sweeden, an old lady living on the corner of Wilkes and Columbus streets, died last night.

At Henry's Theatre last night George Northridge in the raffle for a horse threw 43, and won for his brother William.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to John W. Washington, of Culpeper, and Gwinette E. Dudley.

A postal card received at this office to-day from Morrisville, Fauquier county, says that a roan mare that had been driven there from Winchester broke away and has not yet been found.

Mr. Wm. H. Bontz, engineer of the Hydraulic Steam Fire Engine Company, is off on his ten days' leave of absence. Policeman B. T. Young will act as engineer during his vacation, on the recommendation of the officers of the company.

The semi-weekly dancing club held a meeting at the Braddock House last night. The following officers were elected: W. W. Ballenger, President; A. Simpson, Vice President; E. S. Smith, Secretary; R. Travers, Treasurer, and John Proctor, Instructor.

Fred Douglass was one of the speakers at the meeting held at the Opera House yesterday evening after the emancipation parade by a number of colored people. A wagon upon which was a boat filled with colored children in the parade broke down at the corner of King and Fayette streets and threw some of the occupants into the street.

The electric lamp at the corner of Fairfax and Wilkes streets needs attention.

Though rather late the September cool mornings and nights have come.

SENATOR DANIEL AT STAUNTON.—Senator Daniel spoke at Staunton yesterday to a large crowd. He sustained his reputation as an earnest, forceful, convincing orator, and referred frequently, and in a very complimentary manner, to the record of Hon. H. St. George Tucker, the democratic nominee of that district, who resides in Staunton.

The speaker held his audience for over two hours and a half, and was enthusiastically applauded by the large crowd. The Senator traced the recent history of the two parties, and made an able defense of the course pursued by the democrats. He maintained that the hard times antedated the present administration and were the natural result of the extravagant and partial legislation which marked the Harrison regime. He also defended the record of the present Congress, claiming that it had done more in a single year than any other Congress has ever done to restore prosperity. In closing Senator Daniel ably defended his position on the silver question. He addressed the Stonewall Camp of Confederate Veterans last night.
